Northeast College Tour: February 13 - 20, 2010

TOUR DESCRIPTION:

This eight day / seven night excursion will introduce you to several colleges and universities where you will have the chance to experience first-hand what college life is all about, become actively involved in obtaining accurate and reliable information, and have an exciting and educational time with your classmates and friends.

You will visit: Boston University, Emerson College, or MIT; Harvard University, Boston College, or Northeastern University; Tufts University, Wellesley College, or Bentley College; Brown University, Rhode Island School of Design, Johnson & Wales University, or Providence College; Columbia University, Fordham University, or Barnard College; New York University, Parsons School of Design, or Sarah Lawrence College; University of Pennsylvania, Drexel University, or Temple University; Haverford College, Bryn Mawr College, or Villanova University; Johns Hopkins University, Maryland Institute College of Art, or Loyola University; Georgetown University or George Washington University; American University, University of Maryland, or Washington, DC Tour. (You CHOOSE SCHOOL TO VISIT WHEN GIVEN OPTION)

There will be student led campus tours, question and answer sessions with admission officers, meals, classroom visits, activities, and plenty of sightseeing. Lodging will occur in hotels located near the schools and is based on double and triple occupancy. Activities on previous tours have included exploring the areas surrounding the schools, attending athletic and cultural events, and shopping in malls and markets. Throughout the trip, participants receive helpful information, materials, and tips on how to make the most of the campus visits.

The tour will be led by Mr. Robert Clelland, College Counseling Assistant, TASIS, The American School in England, UK, and Mr. Robert Rummerfield, COLLEGE VISITS. Before starting COLLEGE VISITS, Mr. Rummerfield was an assistant director of admissions at The Johns Hopkins University. TASIS students and counselors have participated on numerous trips. Since 1991, teenagers, parents, and counselors from across the world have joined our tours. Some of their comments:

"I really enjoyed the tour and have found a few colleges that I will apply to. There was a good balance between visits and fun time. I was able to meet new people and got to know some of my classmates better."

"I got to meet interesting people and see places I had never seen before. More importantly, I got a chance to see and define the qualities I am looking for in a university."

"It was well organized, executed, and overall, insightful in content. I feel we visited many good schools and the variety will definitely help me decide where I want to go."

"The tour was a lot of fun. It was great to see so many campuses without having to organize all of the visits myself. It was a very educational experience, and I learned a lot about colleges that prior to the tour, I did not know much about."

If you have any questions about the trip, or would like additional information, please contact Mr. Robert Clelland (rclelland@tasisengland.org), Mrs. Anna Wright (awright@tasisengland.org), Mrs. Amy Christie (achristie@tasisengland.org), or us. We look forward to your participation.
