Dear Bob,

This letter is a belated but most sincere thank you for the fine work you and Catherine did in putting together our 2005 College Visits Tour. The itinerary was the same, from Boston to Washington, but the crew was different, and I didn't have to go at all! Your going this year gave me the peace of mind necessary to send two Antilles School neophyte chaperones, freeing me to do other college traveling and consulting rather than doing the same trip I'd done in 2004. Not only did you safely return our 25 students, but you also made sure 7 students from All Saints School had equally successful experiences. Please save the first full week of March 2006, because wherever next year's Juniors choose to go, they will be traveling with College Visits. I wouldn't have it any other way.

Best Wishes,

Chris Teare
Assistant Head
